

The Deacons' Job Description

16/9/86

1. The Deacon Individually.

1. Maintain a personal quiet time and family devotional time every day.
2. Attend both the morning and evening services of the church every week.
3. Attend a Wed. evening home group and/or the Sat. morning prayer meeting when possible.
4. Practise hospitality by inviting families and persons from the church for meals regularly.
5. Know the congregation by meeting and talking with people after the services.
6. Attend Deacons' meetings when held (at least once per quarter).
7. Support special activities of the church such as camps and conventions.
8. Attend working bees when held (at least twice per year).

3. The Deacons Corporately.

1. Visit and assist the physically needy, especially the sick and the unemployed.
2. Maintain and improve the church buildings and property. (Use Building Committee.)
3. Encourage and organize the ministries of hospitality and caring in the church family.
4. Ensure that all physical requirements for the worship services are provided.